STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1906.

NO. 12.

HIGHLAND.

Elbert Young was in Stanford last week delivering books and shears.

There is quite a howl going up from the patrons of the I. J. at this place.

Farmers are making use of this dry weather, sowing oats and doing some gardening.

Squire Dave Adams held court at Ellen Baugh's store house a few days since. Docket light.

Quite a crowd of his neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Craig Baugh a few days since to help him enjoy another birthday dinner.

J. M. Long has moved into his new house. His son, W. M. Long, will live in the old house. Rich Young, Dock Rogers and Isaac Baugh have all moved in the last few days.

Born to the wife of L. S. Warfield, a girl, Mesdames Mary Graybeal and Lanzo Skidmore and Miss Laura Skidmore have been ill for a few days. Bastin, for several days, has returned to her home.

Measles, Sipple, of McKinney, and Stetter, of Chicago, were here introducing their stock food. John Cash, the machine agent of Middleburg, was here this week collecting. Mrs. D. R. Adams visited her sister, Mrs. Bryant, at Burnside. Mrs. Clymer, who has been with her son, William, for some time, is now with her daughter, Mrs. Craig Baugh. H. P. Horton has gone to Louisville in search of employment. J. Wash Cook is at work at Somerset. Walter Baugh was at home from Somerset with his parents. Val Fagaley, of Waynesburg, was here last week trying to induce the women to go to housecleaning by selling them his fine line of wall papers. Henry DeBorde, of Bee Lick, is with his brother, John, for a few days while under treatment by Dr. Peyton. J. M. Young, of Indiana, was here this week.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knee and joints aching, muscles sore, head stepped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the gripe." Sold by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

Anderson county will build 10 miles of new pike this year.

Mrs. Johanna Baird, of Harrison county, aged 70, wove 25 yards of carpet in 14 hours.

The funeral of Edwin C. Swift, of Chicago, took place yesterday at Beverly, Mass.

Rheumatism Makes Life Miserable.

A happy home is the most valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering from rheumatism. You throw aside business cares when you enter your home and you can be relieved from those rheumatic pains also by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

The Supreme Court of Illinois declared the new primary law unconstitutional. Gov. Dineen called a special session of the Legislature for next Tuesday.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mary Jane Owsley was born near Lexington, Ky., on the 11th of January 1814. Her father was William Dunlap, whose father was Major William Dunlap, of the Revolutionary army, in active service till the surrender at Yorktown. She was one of a family of 12 sons and daughters and was noted for her beauty and sprightliness in the days of her early youth. On Feb. 11, 1840, she was married to Mr. Joseph Hopper, a prosperous merchant of Lancaster, Ky., and was a resident of that place for many years. Of this marriage there were two children, Mrs. Mattie Dunlap Withers and Mr. George Dunlap Hopper, who survive her. Subsequently she was married to Mr. John Owsley, who died in 1863. During the latter years of her life Mrs. Owsley had made her home in Stanford with her children.

Her passing has ended the career of one of the most remarkable women of the century. Brought up in the teachings of the Presbyterian church, her faith was staunch and true, and her principles of right living were founded on the Rock of Ages. Her mental gifts were unusual. Reared in the dry of meager education for women beyond the domestic accomplishments, there was no evidence in speech or manner that she was not a graduate of the schools. Quick to observe, she acquired a degree of culture rarely seen in the women of her time. Her buoyant, cheerful spirit was pre-eminent, and her conversation was replete with wit and humor. It was remarked that there was never a dull moment in her presence. In shadow and in sunshine she had a heart for every fate, and she met the vicissitudes of a long life with unshrinking brow.

During her residence at Lancaster her life was marked by deeds of mercy and loving-kindness. There were no trained nurses in those early times. The sick were cared for by willing neighbors. She went wherever trouble came and ministered to the sick, the dying and the dead.

To be near her was, in a manner, to drink in the elixir of life, for of her abundance she gave forth. Loving and lovable, firm in conviction and warm in friendship, she has gone to the land of Beulah and left for posterity many noble lessons. Requisite at pace.

How blest the righteous when she dies!
When sinks a weary soul to rest,
How mildly beam the closing eyes,
How gently heaves the expiring breast.

Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies;
While heaven and earth combine to say:
How blest the righteous when she dies!

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Joseph T. Watts, of Louisville, is holding an interesting meeting at the Baptist church at London.

Dr. R. G. Bow, of Louisville, secretary of State Board, will preach at Grove on Saturday, 14th, at 2:30 p. m., and at night. At Waynesburg at 11 a. m., 15th, and at Pleasant Point at 7:30 p. m.

Over 300 guests partook of a sumptuous spread at the Christian church last night, says a dispatch from Paris, the occasion being the annual banquet given to the men of the congregation by the pastor, Elder Carey E. Morgan, and the ladies of the church. The dining rooms were beautifully decorated. The Kentucky University quartette, of Lexington, and Foote's Mandolin and Guitar Club, of Paris, furnished a delightful program. The principal speakers were Eld. F. M. Raines, of Cincinnati, on "This Occasion;" Elder I. J. Spencer, of Lexington, on "The Dignity of Manhood," and Elder E. L. Powell, of Louisville, on "Patriotic Citizenship." The speakers were introduced by Elder Morgan.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world can not have his kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and have great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." Penny's Drug Store.

A mass-meeting of Dowieites was held in Shiloh Tabernacle at Zion City Sunday and after a scathing speech by Overseer Voliva the entire assemblage of 6,000 people voted their approval of the new leader.

Stomach and Liver Trouble Cured.

There is no question but what we are within the radius of an underlying gas belt that only awaits the coming of the drill for development that will "make Rome howl with happiness." Lets organize for the work.

E. C. WALTON.

JUDGE JOHN W. HUGHES,

of Mercer county, is a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional district of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilmer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, made enough to "eat 'em alive," will arrive at Zion City this afternoon from Mexico, where he is founding another Zion City. To-morrow afternoon he will address the elders or deacons and we opine he will tell them a few things that they will not soon forget. The self-styled Elijah the Second spurns the effort by his wife, son and Chief Overseer Voliva to depose him and he says one of the few mistakes he has made in his long and eventful life was placing Voliva in such high authority. Next Sunday afternoon Dowie will address a great throng in the Tabernacle at Zion City, when excursion trains from Chicago and other cities will be run to carry the thousands who will hear him. The following interview was furnished the Associated Press during his short sojourn at San Antonio, Texas, Sunday: "It hurts me much, these malicious and scandalous stories that have been spread broadcast over the world, placing me in the light of a hypocrite and a cheat. And it hurts me the more when I think that a mere boy whom I trusted and believed to be an honest, God-fearing man should be the instigator and disseminator of them. Don't misunderstand me. Voliva is a shrewd fellow, but with all that he is an imitator. He tried to usurp the place of John Alexander, first apostle, and that he can never do. I have deposed him, do you understand? He is no longer an officer of the Christian Catholic church."

WHEN it comes to big families Muhlenburg county is in a class by itself, as the following from Central City will show: "William Allen had 24 children, four by his first wife and 20 by the last. Meredith Walker had 21 children, all of whom had the same mother; William Greenwood had 20 children and only one wife, and Elijah Dukes had 18 children, all having the same mother, and there are 100 families in the county with 16 children." It might be helpful for the heads of some of Lincoln county's "childrenless" households to sojourn for a while among the prolific families of the county of Muhlenburg.

OUT of nine justices on the Supreme bench only three are Democrats, though the Democrats constitute half of the population of the country. If Chief Justice Fuller were to resign there would be but two. His announcement that he will not resign while Roosevelt is president, so that he can appoint his successor, is therefore a very proper and patriotic conclusion.

THE rectifiers are going to test the constitutionality of the act taxing their product 1 1/2 a gallon. That was to be expected, but they will gnaw a file. They had better take their medicine with as good face as possible. The airing their business has gotten will result in heavier taxes next time. They ought to be taxed out of existence.

IT will take a good deal of voting to get whisky out of Jonesville, which lies half in Grant and half in Owen counties. Both of these counties will have to vote dry before the accursed stuff, as the prohibitionists call it, can be shut out. Jonesville is little but she is very loud.

VIRGINIA has a law providing the payment of poll taxes as a requisite for voting. At Virginia Beach only six persons have qualified to vote, although a mayor and six town councilmen are to be elected. The present mayor is one of the disqualified voters.

SENATOR FORAKER's Ohio friends are at work preparing to boom him for the Republican presidential nomination. They will endeavor to put a resolution of indorsement through the Republican State Convention.

POLITICAL.

The voters of Henderson county will vote on a $125,000 court-house in November.

Congressman Ollie M. James was named by the First District Democratic Committee, to succeed himself.

The fiscal court of Laurel reduced the salaries of the judge, the county attorney and school superintendent.

While Gov. Beckham is recuperating at French Lick Springs, Lieut. Gov. Thorne will occupy the Executive chair. Gov. Hanly in a public statement issued has refused to pardon or parole David E. Sherick, former Auditor of Indiana.

Col. Thomas Johnson, aged 93, a confederate soldier and a member of the Confederate Congress, is dead at Mt. Sterling.

The Third congressional district Executive Committee will meet April 14 at Bowling Green, to arrange for nominating a congressional candidate.

The Annual Horse Show.

Yesterday was the annual horse show and there were more good stallions on exhibition than have been seen here in years. Space forbids the extended notice each one deserves, but suffice it to say a finer lot of horses are seldom seen even in Kentucky, the home of the saddle and harness horse. Following is a list of the stallions shown: W. M. Dodd's good horse, Galton, was conspicuous for his absence.

Chestnut Squirrel, owned by Weisiger Bros., of Danville, was well liked. A. E. Hundley's speedy horse, Harmon, trial 2:17, was greatly admired. He is by Oratorio, 2:13.

Col. W. H. Dudderar's Kentucky Squirrel made an excellent showing. He is a good horse all over.

J. M. & R. G. Pettus had on hand Naboth, a stylish harness stallion by the great Naboth, now dead.

J. C. Bailey did not show Preston, but he will make the season with him as will be seen elsewhere in this paper.

S. M. Owens exhibited The Warfield, a splendid harness stallion with a rich pedigree. He showed great speed and action.

William Sprinkles showed George Hur and a good colt by him. George Hur is an English coach horse and a good one.

Red Rex and Royal Denmark, R. S. Scudder's good ones, were looking fine and acted nicely. Their pedigree will appear next issue.

William Fields & Son's speedy Antecarlo attracted a great deal of attention and favorable comment. He is a richly bred fellow.

Dock Gray, Hugh Reid Foster's Shetland pony, was the favorite with the little folks. You'll see his picture in this paper next issue.

Glenbrook, the fine black harness stallion, owned by Dr. Cann, of Scott, was shown by A. S. Edelin, who is standing him at Harrodsburg.

D. S. Carpenter's Dignity Dare was in the pink of condition. There is not a handsomer horse in the State than Dignity and his reputation as a breeder is unsurpassed.

Almont Dare, the magnificent son of Dignity Dare, owned by E. S. Powell & Son, of Hustonville, was greatly admired. He is a coming three-year-old and is a dandy.

J. R. Beazley showed Naboth, Jr., under saddle and in harness and made many friends for that popular horse. His Lincoln Squirrel was shown to highlight. Both are good ones.

J. K. Baughman's Shetland pony, Jesse Alverson, was well shown by M. S. Baughman. He did not show his Hummer, Jr., and Hapsburg, two splendid harness stallions.

Calvin C. Carpenter showed to halter his fine young stallion, Dare All, by Dignity Dare. He also had on exhibition a beautiful yearling by him. They were both greatly admired.

McCarty & Co.'s good pair, Atie and Almont Wilkes, were the subject of much favorable comment. They are good individuals and their breeding is all right. See "ad." next issue.

F. Reid's Jack, full brother to Jack of Diamonds, was a popular horse with the crowd. He is by Dorsey Goldust. Mr. Reid also showed a gelding and filly by Dorsey that were greatly admired.

Ashland Brook, by Silent Brook, dam by Ashland Wilkes, and King Eagle, a splendid saddle stallion, were shown by S. T. Harris and Robert Woods. They also had on exhibition two splendides by the latter horse.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Hae, Ky. He writes: Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since. It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs.
